The sewing school established at the Metropolitan A. M. E. Zion Sunday School is doing much good in South Washington. It keeps the girls out of the streets and their hands full.

The thermometer stood 90° in the shade Sunday evening and the residences of South Washington, between the hours of 9 and 10 was still sweltering under the rays which old Sol had left behind, before his setting.

Mrs. Jane Rowe, wife of Mr. Green Rowe, of Method Wake County, N. C. Arrived in Washington July 10 on the Steamer Norfolk, accompanied by Mrs. Ella Deerland, Miss Barrington to her son Charles, daughter-in-law and two grand children. After a short visit they will return to Method.

While the family of Mr. and Mrs. H. Middleton was wishing for something to cool the atmosphere, suddenly there came a knocking and the house-hold was thrown in a joyful consternation, the grand father was told that a little girl had made its appearance, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Tanner.

Miss Martha Liggins is teaching in the summer school at Logan. Her untiring energy and the true missionary spirit which she manifests, makes her a valuable acquisition to any field of labor in which she engages.

Mr. Mitchel, foster son of the late Frederick Douglass, is in the City, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sprague. He has just returned from Atlantic City, where he has been health seeking and will leave in the near future for Philadelphia.

Mrs. Nicholas Colbert of Madison St. left the City on Thursday morning for Brooklyn, N. Y. From this place she will visit the Pan-American Exposition. Her husband is still in California quaffing the delightful sea breezes of the Pacific.

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Hattie Scott, wife of Mr. Peter Scott passed away on Friday, July 19th, to the realms of the blest. The deceased was a devout Christian having been a member of Asbury Church from which she was buried on Tuesday. She leaves a husband, two children, and two sisters, Madame Carrie Fountain and Mrs. Maggie Whipples, to mourn her loss. The interment was at Woodlawn.

THE PEN AND PENCIL OUTING.

Lake View Park and a Select Crowd—One of the most fashionable gatherings that has ever been at the Park.

One of the most fashionable and aristocratic gatherings that has ever crowded Lake View Park was the outing of the well known Pen and Pencil Club, of which Mr. L. W. Hershaw is President. This club is an association of Washington Correspondents to the Several Afro-American Journals in the United States. The members of the Press were out in force and the many hundred invited guests comprised the best society in the city. It was a question as to how so many beautiful and well dressed ladies could be gathered at one time. It showed the popularity of the Pen and Pencil Club and its ability to draw so many of the very best people from the society of this City. The ladies' toilet was exquisite, the music was all that one could wish to make the occasion one of enjoyment and merriment. It is true, that it was warm, but it did not impede the free use of the many hundred feet that kept time with the sweet strains of music from the select orchestra that had been engaged for the occasion. Everybody who could attend the outing of this popular organization did not fail to give his presence to its members who have been and are doing so much to disseminate news through their respective journals. These Knights of the quill should feel elated to be thus honored by so many distinguished, beautiful and refined people. The Committee deserves credit and the managers of the Park equally as much for their efforts in making the surroundings agreeable and pleasant for all. President Hershaw, the affable and gentlemanly president of the Pen and Pencil Club, with his classic books and dignified bearing was the most silent member on the grounds.

NOTES.

R. W. Thompkins thought of the days when he could do what the young boys were doing. Bob could only look on.

Register Lyons was tempted, but he thought he carried too much weight.

Bill Mayes weighs too much now, while the Madame has lost none of her girlish nimbleness upon the floor.

Assistant Register Adams took it quietly, while Henry Lewis wished for better days.

Mesdame Dabney is just as pretty as ever, while her sister still retains her youthful look and loveliness upon the floor.

WHAT I SAW AND HEARD.

The Afro-American Council will meet in Philadelphia, Pa. next month. What will be done one may conjecture. The Afro-American Press will also meet there.

The colored man must come to the conclusion to help himself. He should cease his begging and work out his own destiny.

Recorder of Deeds Cheatham will go South next week. He is prospecting and he will no doubt surprise his friends.

There are quite a number of men in the City looking for an office. The Administrator is out of the City, but the office seekers are here just the same.

The Dot in Telegraphy.

The manner in which telegrams are sent over the wires, without punctuation or separation into words, easily explains the following error: A telegram sent from Rutland, Vt., to a "Mr. Hardman, Chester," was received by "Mr. Hard, Manchester."

An Emphatic Disagreement.

A notable disagreement of a jury occurred in Muncie, Ind. Henry Wolf was on trial for creating a disturbance on a trolley car. The jury was locked up to consider the case, and in about half an hour a tumult arose in the room. Shouts and blasphemy were heard, and when the door was hurriedly opened, the black eyes and bloody noses of several of the jurors indicated that they had discussed the case with their fists and had emphatically disagreed.

Antics of an Old Clock.

An antique clock, in Calcium, Pa., lately struck one, and almost caused a tragedy. It has been in the family of Mrs. Susanna Phillips for 160 years. While that lady was trying to wind it, the clock tilted forward, falling upon her and crushing her to the floor. An aged invalid, Peter Koller, hearing her screams, crept to her assistance and managed to rescue her.

American Playing Cards Abroad.

There are few countries in the world where American playing cards are not found. They are attaining remarkable popularity in the far east, Japan liking them particularly.
